Note: Chaos has a useful purpose: to get us out of our knowing so we can learn something new.

Where are you right now in your life?
Curiosity, Awakening, Knowing or Chaos?

No matter what wall you find yourself up against, we here at Heart Virtue believe you have a spark of divinity built into your molecules that is compelled to make a major contribution.

Like a blueprint we are born with, this unique gift works through us and when we are living in alignment with it, invisible hands seem to assist our every effort...

This gift is hidden behind a blind spot. Revealing this theme will give you clarity about your specific purpose and the contribution that will be most rewarding to you.

At Heart Virtue we have the tools that will train you to live in alignment with that Hero by identifying your Heart Virtue and putting it to work in your life...

Greg and his wife Tamara will take your congregation through a set of exercises that teach us how to live in “Enlightment” inside your Goosebumps and Rage experiences. They have found this to be the key of becoming self-actualized. Each person will discover the theme that has driven their choices in life. You’ll then begin to create projects and activities that expose and maximize your Goosebumps and minimize your Rage.

Greg and Tamara’s

Disney-Themed Wedding is an example of living in alignment with what’s most meaningful to them. Experiencing Bliss on a more regular basis continues to bring them through the toughest of challenges.

Living your Heart Virtue will forward the profound evolution of humanity, and invite us to open up to the voice of our deepest calling, and make manifest the glory of who we are and why we came to this planet...

Is your congregation ready to step into the highest version of themselves they ever imagined?

*Take a stand in the face of who you once were,
mount up with wings of eagles,
and discover the great mystery of life itself living inside your chest...*

Greg Mooers is committed to spiritual integrity and seeing that people live in alignment with what's most meaningful to them.

As a graduate of Stevens Institute of Technology with a Bachelor of Engineering degree where he studied energy & quantum physics, a former monk and NOW inspirational speaker, Greg's passion is to have six billion people know their Heart Virtue™. Greg spent more than 15,000 hours in silent meditation during his eight years as a monk. During that time, he studied the lives of heroes and discovered there were three main skills they all possessed that allowed them to make powerful contributions to humanity.

Greg shares these three main skills with his audiences by using accelerated spiritual and psychological evolutionary insights while training people to master their own hero within. He receives endless testimonies from participants who have gained clarity and confidence in discovering their purpose, then making a powerful contribution to humanity.

At the foundation of Greg's workshops, he helps you identify your very own Heart Virtue™ (like a unique fingerprint) that may have been hidden in a blind spot. This allows each person to take a stand for what they believe in and experience more authentic, lasting fulfillment. Greg has trained entrepreneurs, psychologists, ministers, Olympic Gold Medalists, and Academy & Emmy award-winning celebrities who were at the top of their game asking themselves "what next!?"

He is an accomplished speaker and does many experiential workshops and seminars. His dedication to the healing arts has resulted in specialized products and a Life Coaching Certification Program in which he trains experienced coaches to identify individual's Heart Virtues™.

Testimonials

For years, I and everyone I knew were in some kind of therapy. It was all there was at the time. I believe Greg's Hearts Virtue program is the beginning of the end of therapy as we know it. This work is absolutely the cutting edge of the New Age, and I cannot describe what it has done for me and many I love.

I recently had a life-changing experience with my Heart Virtue. As a result of one session with Greg something shifted inside of me, and I knew in that instant that I had changed the energy of my problems. I am living proof of his extraordinary process.

Steven Simon

Thank you so much for helping me uncover my Heart Virtue. The very room opened up and I know I will never be the same. So many seminars come and go, the contents quickly forgotten. But the personal insights your program offers are so profound that they are fresh in my mind after months and even years.

Hannah R.

When I turned 39, I made a wish for a successful business and a successful relationship. Working with the Hearts Virtue program, I learned an amazing confidence and clarity about who I truly am. I am now standing in my spotlight and am no longer alone. I have amazing people in my life. But most amazing... I have me!
